

The game at Blackburn Arena last night resulted in a win for the Phantoms over the Aardvarx by a score of 14 - 0. The start of the game was slightly delayed but when it finally got under way, it was played in a good spirit, with few penalties and enjoyed by all who took part. Although the Phantoms had a majority of possession throughout the game, the final score doesn't reflect the effort and determination displayed by the home team who kept their heads up and played hard right to the final hooter. The complete game stats will be published shortly along with photos of the game. In addition to the normal stats recorded for the game, there were two important firsts for the Phantoms last night:

- The first EIHA officially sanctioned game
- The first game in the Phantoms team strip
